TWO FEARLESS KNIGHTS IN THE MIDST OF BATTLE.

WHILE THE NOBLES AND FAIR LADIES
BREATHLESSLY WATCH THE GRUELING TOURNAMENT.

HARK, A FAIR MAIDEN IN DISTRESS!
A FIERY DRAGON HATH INVADDED
OUR CASTLE.

BUT FEAR NOT, FOR HERE COMETH THAT GALLANT KNIGHT—SIR LUNCH-ALOT!

HERE IS A GLIMPSE AT ONE OF KING
ARTHUR'S "KNIGHTS—"

WHILE HIS TRUSTY STEED WAITS
PATIENTLY OUTSIDE.

S is for the Spinster Spree and that big night of fun.
The gals had to ask the guys, which put them on the run.

E is for the evening when all the kids went back
To teddy bears and skipping ropes and even riding piggyback.

N is for the night when we took our moms and pops
To eat the dinner and see the play. It really was the tops.

I is for the informal prom with star dust as its theme:
Gary Irwin, who was the King, crowned Jeanne Ann Wald, the Queen.

O is for ovation given by everyone
When class night was over and all had shared the fun.

R is for Rod Kellogg, the President who was elected.
From a swell class he was the one selected.

I is for the inspiration offered to the class.
At Baccalaureate the sermon impressed every lad and lass.

T is for the tasseled cap which by seniors were displayed.
At the assembly, they received the honors that they made.

I is for the indulgence we displayed at the feast.
Senior banquet of '54 was the most to say the least.

S is for the seniors, who on commencement night
Received their diplomas with pleasure and delight.

Scholars

The scholars of the castle "East High" have various duties to keep the castle in order and educate His Majesty's ambitious students. Book learning is necessary but teachers make it possible for subjects to learn many valuable pearls of wisdom which cannot be learned from books. The scholars are not only excellent educators but vital friends of all their subjects. Ever helpful with work, assemblies, school parties, counseling, and many other extra duties, teachers are constantly kept busy. His Majesty's subjects are very grateful for all the knowledge obtained at the castle through the scholars.

COURT COUNCIL

Every Tuesday morning the halls of Castle East ring with the arguments and debates of many worthy knights, met in the court council. Under the capable leadership of Miss Agnes Helmreich the council renders many important decisions in regard to school policy. The council lays down the regulations which govern all student activities, and is responsible for student conduct around the castle.

The East High student council consists of representatives elected from each homeroom, who represent their fellow students in the council and are responsible for reporting to their homerooms the decisions made by the council. This semester the students elected officers by representatives were Dick Jessen, president; Jim Jacobson, vice-president; and Mevelyn Wooderson, secretary. The Court Council is a very important part of the East High Castle, and helps the students strive toward "service to humanity."

QUILL STAFF

The Quill is assembled by a staff of eighteen senior scribes. One scribe is assigned to edit one of the four sections: Introduction, James Schneider; Seniors, Jeanne Wald; School Life, Bette Haag; and Sports, Bill Carpe. Each semester senior English teachers choose a group to try out for the Quill Staff. Each of these students is asked to write an essay and papers are judged on the basic writing skills. This year the book is edited by Joy Peters and Linda Findlow under the direction of Mr. George Christian.

Scroll Staff

Each fifth hour the members of the Scroll Staff work hard to put out our school newspaper. Under the efficient editing of Larry Fowler and Marilyn Berry, our paper has been given a first-place rating. The Scroll gives reviews of athletic and social events, provides feature stories, and keeps both students, alumni, and friends posted on the latest events. Mr. Kenneth Stratton is Scroll Staff Adviser.

Student Teachers

While attending Drake University our cadet teachers are gaining experience by actual teaching. They attend classes one-half day and spend the rest of their time assisting our regular teachers. Such a system enables the Drake students to prepare themselves for the future. It always allows more time for individual attention.

These East High students who are asked to take over a class in the absence of a regular teacher are appointed by Mr. Gregory from his senior history classes. In order to qualify for this job the students must have a good character, personality and scholastic record. These students are certainly a great help to teachers.

Future Teachers' Meeting

Royal Societies

There are more than fifteen different clubs whose meetings are held under the portals of Castle East High. With the capable and energetic presidents our Royal Societies do much to promote the famous "school spirit" by bringing students closer together. Through these clubs many kinds of activities are carried on, such as the studying of future vocations, language groups, charity work, social hours, and strictly fun and relaxation. There should be a club of some sort for every person who attends East, as clubs are considered an important part of our school life.

Right Foreground: Captain Judy McGaffee; Standing: Pat Knopp, Shirley Lowder, Janet Hoffman, Sharon Burris, Joyce Tipton

Majorettes

Marching with the band are the drum major and six majorettes. The majorettes of East Castle dressed in their brilliant costumes of red and black and carrying their flashing batons have done a marvelous job of marching and twirling. Led by Judy McGaffee these girls really have helped to make each football game a roaring success. The majorettes participate in the various band maneuvers and formations for halftime entertainment, Spotlight Parade, and other entertaining events. They are chosen by Mr. Jack Borg for their ability to twirl batons and to march with the band.

Court Musicians

Led down the field by Drum Major Jim Jacobson, the Royal Marching Band enlivened half-time at the football games with its martial music and intricate maneuvers, announced this year by public address man Bill Swain.

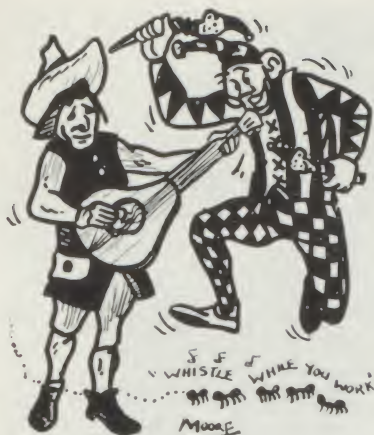

East had the largest High School marching band in Des Moines this season, with over eighty members marching.

The band practices fifth hour three days a week during football season. Mr. Borg writes the routines which the band perfects at the new stadium. East may well be proud of its band and the fine music it provides.

MR. BORG

Court Musicians

Every Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, during fifth hour study hall, intent students may notice strange noises drifting into the quiet atmosphere of the study hall. These noises seem to come from the walls, but in reality they emanate from room 219, where the orchestra is hard at practice. Under the direction of Mr. Jack Borg, this group plays a wide selection of arrangements ranging from popular ballads to heavy classics. Some of the orchestra's favorites this year are "The French Military March," "Night And Day," "Blue Tango," and Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony." Mr. Borg says he considers this year's orchestra one of the finest he has directed in his career at East High. Students had a chance to hear the orchestra at the school play this semester, and they will perform again in connection with the senior activities. Students who play in the East High orchestra and are also members of the all-state orchestra are Doris Glidwell, cellist, and Janice Richards, violinist.

Violins: Richards, Thomas, Brown, Brown, Baird; Viola: Springer, Brown, Gourd, Glidwell, Hampton, Rudasill; Flute: Schneider, Akes; Oboe: Phipps, Smith; Clarinet: Carpe, Harvey, Eschenbach, Carter, Williams; Saxophone: Dickerson; Trumpet: Burnett, Dolinsek, Thompson, McChesney, Welker; Horn: Blair, DeAngelo, Ward, Henderson, Gillis; Trombone: Slaybaugh, Mentzer; Bass: McBrian, Crouch; Drum: Stoddard, Lucas, Rasmussen; Piano: Anderson; String Bass: Berard, Starch.

A Cappella Choir

The harmonious strains echoing through the castle halls are found to flow forth from the upper chamber of the Royal Singers. Here under the direction of Her Ladyship, Sigrid Greenhill, the Scarlet Nightingales rehearse their arrangements. The most advanced of this group is the A Cappella Choir. Their magnificent performance in the annual Nativity is acclaimed throughout the kingdom of Lee Township.

Double Quartette

The Double Quartette is another group in the Royal Singing Society. They entertain not only in the East Castle but throughout all of the kingdom of Des Moines.

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club consists of gay, young vocalists who work together with Lady Greenhill to improve their musical abilities.

Boys' Quartette

Led by Miss Greenhill, the Boys Quartette has provided entertainment at many of our school assemblies. These boys also have had opportunities to take part in various programs both in and outside of school. They not only receive very good instruction but achieve personal satisfaction. They practice harmony and do work on improving tone quality. The Boys Quartette also takes part in Spotlight Parade.

Girls' Sextette

Miss Greenhill selects the girls' sextet from tryouts at the beginning of each semester. The girls in our sextet have remarkable voices which blend together in perfect harmony. Their selections are semiclassical and classical. It is indeed a treat when the Royal Court is favored by the presence of these songbirds.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girl's Glee Club is made up of girls who wish to advance themselves in music. They meet every other day with Miss Greenhill to learn more about music. They practice harmony and do work on improving tone qualities. After hearing these voices, Miss Greenhill can select those who have special talent. She may help them with public appearances or give them a place in the A Cappella Choir. This musical organization is often called upon to perform in civic affairs and sing for school assemblies.

YE OLDE PALACE PLAYERS

Mrs. Laser

The Royal Court Players presented the Palace play on the eighteenth and nineteenth of November. The play was a hilarious farce under the capable direction of Mrs. Juniata Laser. The comedy was fast moving and laugh provoking. All members of the production should be commended on the success of the play. Every year the plays, although often much different in pattern and production, live up to the fine tradition of expert handling and perfection. Those attending labeled "A Broom for the Bride" as no exception.

Assembly Ushers

Performing a thankless task for the Royal Court are these loyal sentinels from Home Rooms 4 and 7. On assembly days they can be seen in the auditorium ahead of time, bracing themselves for the onslaught of students eager for a front row seat. The Royal assemblies this year were well attended and highly entertaining, living up to the high standards set here in previous years.

Froehle, Doggett, Sawday, Anderson.

Wardrobe Girls

The work of the wardrobe girls helps lend beauty and neatness to assemblies, plays and pageants presented at the Castle. Keeping the costumes in order is a huge job in itself and the girls do a fine job. A royal salute to these capable girls.

Nurse's Helpers

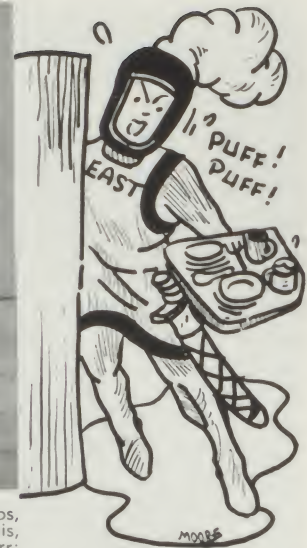

The castle messengers here at East Castle devote their study hall periods to taking care of the telephone which peals an habitual ring over the otherwise quiet corridors. This staff also assists the regular office staff and the teachers and advisors. Most of the girls will plan to do the same type of work after being graduated.

Clerical Staff

These young maidens who so capably take care of those less fortunate on the fields of battle, namely Mr. Rump's classes, are the nurse's helpers. These girls devote their time from their study hall periods. The girls assist Mrs. Alice Clark in various ways, including taking temperatures, keeping the nurse's office in order and handling certain records.

Library Staff

The students on the library staff give up their study hall to aid Miss Larson in keeping nearly 2,000 books in order. They carry out the duties of checking books in and out, finding reference material, and straightening the room when the study periods are over. Miss Larson is always there to help anyone who has difficulty in securing information. The use of our library would be greatly handicapped without these workers.

Cafeteria Helpers

A number of efficient East High girls help during the busy lunch hours by selling candy, serving as noon movie monitors, and ringing up lunch sales. As well as doing a service for their school, these girls are getting valuable experience by associating with different types of people. This is a great asset in later life. Indeed we owe these girls, with their courteous smiles, a big vote of thanks.

Electricians and Movie Operators

Within the stone castle, East High, these folks with the mechanical minds operate the visual aid and P. A. system. Many times you can find them out of class or staying after school to run electric equipment for the student body. Some of these activities include class movies, Commencement, assemblies, Class Night, the Nativity, and the All-School Play. Mr. Yount deserves a great big "thanks" for being a very good instructor to the group. The students run these complicated machines under his watchful eye. Also, the responsibility and condition of the equipment rests on Mr. Yount's shoulders.

Sharel Tuers

Supply Girl

Occasionally we hear a sigh from Sharel Tuers, our efficient East High supply girl, as she glances back at the long line yet to be waited on. She smiles as she goes about her morning task of selling pencils, pens, erasers, paper, and notebooks over the counter. We owe this girl a hearty vote of thanks to show appreciation for all the work she has done.

Pages

The two capable pages of East High venture forth through wind, snow, rain, and sunshine to deliver important messages to the school board. The advisers and office workers depend upon these boys, so they must be responsible and honest students.

Keeping Our Castle Clean

Chamberlains

Orchids to the above group of people who keep our school so neat and clean. A few of the duties of the janitors are keeping supplies in readiness for our use, heating and ventilating the classrooms, and making minor repairs to school equipment. These people, by their efficient deeds and thoughtful acts, make each day more pleasant for us.

Cooks

Those delicious aromas that penetrate your classroom walls each day are created by the efficient cafeteria ladies, under the direction of Mrs. Maude Wigginjost. The meals have been varied and they appeal to the students' taste. A word of appreciation should be given to these women who furnish good, wholesome food for those who eat in the cafeteria.

Scarlet Chargers

"THE IRON MEN"

BOONE BOUNCETH

In their first contest the Royal Scarlets took on a fierce foe from the North, the mighty Boone Toreadors. Sir Jim Clark ran back a kick-off for a touchdown. The second touchdown was scored by Sir Chuck McQuery. After many attempts by the Toreadors, a tally was scored leaving the final score, 12-7.

LINCOLN LOSETH

The valiant Railsplitters were the next to feel the might of the Scarlet Chargers. Although the knights of Lincoln tried desperately to win, they were unsuccessful. Knights Clark and McQuery carried the scoring honors for the Red and Black. The final score was 13-0 with the Royal Scarlets moving on victorious.

TROY FALLETH

It was a rainy night when the Scarlets traveled to Waterloo to take on the East High Trojans. The Trojans were not easily put down. The winning touchdown was scored in the last seconds by Sir Jack Hartung. Even then the Trojans carried the ball down to the Scarlet eight yard line before the final gun sounded to end the game with a score of 13-12.

MOHAWK MAIMED

The Mohawks from Mason City ventured down to Des Moines to take on the fabulous Scarlets. The Mohawks expecting to scalp our chances in the Big Six. Four thousand spectators witnessed the dedication of the stadium and the scalping of the Mohawks, 28-7. The victory put the Scarlet and Black on top in the Big Six.

DODGERS DOWNED

The Scarlet chargers sallied forth to Fort Dodge to take on the Dodgers, who were anxious to steal the royal Big Six crown from the Scarlets. Sir Jim Clark carried the scoring honors with three touchdowns. Under this heavy surge of power the Dodgers crumpled, leaving East victorious, 20-13.

TECH TOPPLETH

The knights of Tech High decided to capture the crown worn by the Scarlets. On East's town field the unfortunate Engineers were beaten back time and again in their desperate attempt to stop the Scarlets. The Scarlets tore through the Tech line winning 40-0.

RIDERS WIN

The Scarlets prepared for the test of the year with the Knights of the West. This tournament would decide whether or not the city crown would remain at East. In the fierce battle that followed, the City Crown slowly drifted toward the West where it now rests. Next year it will undoubtedly return to its proper owner.

POLAR BEARS PELTED

The Bears of the North ambled down hoping to run the Scarlet out of the city competition. The Scarlets wouldn't allow this terrible thing to happen. After beating the polar Bears 12-0, the Scarlets claimed the largest football crown in the state, the BIG SIX CROWN.

Second Football Team

COACH GREGORY

Indeed, this year East can look with pride at their Football Squires. Under the expert coaching of Head Coach Charles Gregory and Assistant Coach Richard Johnson these Squires rode through the city competition to win the city title. Most of these boys will move on to the varsity next year; however, the experience gained on the second team will always be an asset to them. Here's hoping for another successful season.

Cage Monks

Helmets off to the diligent and trustworthy student managers called the "cage monks." Every night these boys are out there taking care of the equipment and taking care of the "wounded", under the direction of Gus Rump. This keeps them pretty busy, but they're also making new friends and qualifying to earn a letter at the end of the year.

Cross Country

If anyone happens to notice a merrie band of sweat-suited serfs charging all over the East countryside, rest assured it can only be the Cross Country team training for its meets. Under Coach Augustine's capable direction we know these boys will make another good showing for East and really "bring home the trophies" as they have in years past.

Boys' Tennis

Under the coaching of Sir Raymond Gewerth, the boys' tennis team completed a very successful season. Although competition does not swing into full gear until spring, East High made a very good showing in the city tournament. Only one letterman, Bill Swain, remains from last year's squad, but with many promising juniors and sophs, this year's squad will be one of the best that Castle East has ever had. Their season includes all the city teams plus the Big Six and state tournaments.

Girls' Tennis

The girls' tennis team, under the leadership of Lady Helen Spencer, is made up of girls who are interested in tennis and who are interested in competition. They play all the city teams and usually make a fine record. To join the Girls' tennis team it is necessary to join the GAA, since tennis is one of the GAA sports. Letters can be earned on the point system.

COACH GEWERTH

COACH SCHAKEL

Girls' Golf

One of the major GAA sports at East is girls' golf. The team is led by Sir Minnekus Schakel, who helps these girls develop their golfing ability. The team goes through much rugged competition but always brings the honors back to Castle East.

The girls put in many hours of practice at the Grandview golf course.

Letters may be earned by these girls on the GAA point system.

Boys' Golf

While boys' golf doesn't get into the limelight during the fall because of football, these boys work hard at representing East High. City-wide golf meets are held between the public high schools. Our faithful boys plug away improving their individual game with hopes of being successful on the meet's fairways.

Coach Minnekus Schakel sees to it that the boys are informed of the golf contests and makes sure they practice during the autumn months.

Row 1: Sullivan, Adams, Cleghorn, Lane, Cruikshank; Row 2: Stensen, Bain, Knox, Marchant, Blanchard, Senecaut.

COACH GREGORY

Wrestling

The wrestling team coached under the direction of Sir Charles Gregory is an opportunity for boys of all size to actively participate in a sport which represents the castle East in a grand manner. The team is taking part in a very stiff competition in both the city, in which it tied for first place in the 53-54 season, and also travels throughout the state.

Swimming

Under the excellent instruction of our swimming coach, Scotty Russell, these boys have certainly made a good showing. Although working under the handicap of improper facilities these boys faithfully practiced to improve their skills. Though they haven't won every meet entered they have always made an excellent showing. These boys have demonstrated the value of good sportsmanship. After the completion of our new pool we can expect to see many exciting swimming meets held at East.

COACH RUSSELL

G. A. A. Officers

The GAA, under the guidance of Miss Spencer, has many and varied activities enjoyed by a large percentage of girls here at the Castle. Their activities include such things as juggling, tumbling, swimming, tennis, and golf. Through the GAA girls work toward letters and monograms. The GAA officers were well chosen this semester and do a good job of assisting Miss Spencer and attending to the planning of activities.

Cheerleaders

The colorful tournament events of our brave East Knights are brought to a roaring crescendo of anticipation and praise by these whirling, bounding East cheerleaders. Every basketball and football tournament finds this group on hand to help lead us on to victory. These never-tiring girls and boys are expertly guided by Mr. Stratton. We at East Castle feel they are comparable to any in our vast domain.

Sullivan, Kenney, Peterson, Wetzel.

MISS SPENCER

Row 1: Sisam, Hall, Hartung, Cisna, Galpin;

Basketball

The East High School basketball team started the season off early by beginning practice six weeks before the first game. The team this year is under the direction of a completely new coaching staff headed by Mr. Marshall "Marty" Carlson, a former professional baseball player and East High graduate. His assistant is Mr. Dick Johnson, who is also an assistant football coach.

The boys on the team this year are not exceedingly tall, but what is lacking in height is made up for in speed, shooting ability, and hustle. The team, which is practicing under the handicap presented by the construction of the new gym and swimming pool, is a defending City Series Co-Champion. With this incentive a successful season is expected.

Barnard: "Four boys were sitting on a log and one of them decided to jump. How many were left?"

Stone: "That's easy, three, of course."

Barnard: "Wrong. He just decided; he didn't jump."

Cop: You are exceeding the speed limit, Miss. Your name, please?

Margie A.: But, officer, you can't arrest me. This isn't my car; and besides, I haven't got a driving license.

Driving through a dense fog, a motorist decided to play it safe and just follow the taillight of the car ahead of him. For a full hour, he drove without worry. Then suddenly the taillight went off, and the two cars bumped.

"Hey, why don't you put out your hand when you stop?" yelled the man in the rear.

"Why should I?" came the calm reply. "I'm in my own garage."

"After an international meeting, several delegates stopped for a coke. In every glass there was a fly. The Russian drank his, fly and all. The American, not wishing to offend anyone, pretended to forget to drink. The Englishman calmly fished his out with a spoon. The Scotchman fished his out and wrung it dry."

Senior—Long lessons, no bed, brain fever, he's dead.

Junior—Love smitten, hope fled, heart broken, he's dead.

Sophomore—Conceited, swelled head, bust cranium, he's dead.

Freshman—Milk famine, not fed, starvation, he's dead.

From the Nov. 1929 Quill:

East High in 1950

A remark overheard from a future East High student when Father Time happened to turn a few pages ahead in the joke section of his Quill: "Heavens, I've got five minutes to get up to Room 2570 in Building No. 25. Those pneumatic tubes are so crowded, and it's so far via auto-gyro, that I fear I shall be tardy. With that mechanical robot in the English class, you're just outa' luck if you're tardy. Well, perhaps I had better radio for a pink-slip, and cut through the study hall and auditorium building. Maybe that way I'll get there in time."

To speed is human, to be caught is fine.

Mr. Gregory: (in Texas) "Pretty mild winters you have down here."

Mr. Savage: "Mild! Do you call two feet of snow mild?"

Mr. Gregory: "Two feet! Say man, the snow was so deep in our country last winter that the farmers had to jack up their cows to milk 'em.

ADVANCED GEOMETRY

Theorem: A sheet of paper is a lazy dog.

Given to Prove: A sheet of paper is a lazy dog.

Proof: A sheet of paper is an inclined plane.

An inclined plane is a slope up. A slow pup is a lazy dog. Therefore a sheet of paper is a lazy dog.
